

QUESTIONING*

Recall

facts
plot design
sequence
detail
summary

Cause<>Effect

cause
effect/result motive consequence inference prediction
hypothesis

Similarity

analogy
ratio
comparison
intersection
common element

Difference

contrast
comparison
distinction discrimination
differentiation

Idea to Example

categorization
deduction substantiation
analogy
support

Example to Idea

classification
induction
conclusion
generalization
finding essence

Evaluation

evaluation
judgment
rating
weighing evidence ethical consideration

Recall	Tell the sequence of events.
Cause Effect	What are the effects of _____? What do you think causes _____? What would happen if _____?
Similarity	How are _____ and _____ similar? What feelings does _____ have that _____ also has? How is _____ like _____?
Difference	How is _____ different from _____? Contrast a _____ and a _____.
Idea to Example	What are some of examples of _____? This character was _____. How do we know that?
Example to Idea	What are some character traits of _____? What are the themes of _____? From the evidence, what conclusion do you draw? From these examples, make up a rule that applies to all.
Evaluation	Was the character right or wrong to do this? What do you think of the way the author presented this character? How would you rate this book and why? What do you think the most important theme was?

* Think Trix